

Prayer Path

Pray! Pray often; pray always; pray for any reason!!

On our journey we will provide you with inspirational prayers that will lead you on a path to love, to forgive, to express to seek to find what your inner spirit may need...

Lord, I pray to You, teach us to pray and take us deeper into Your mystery.
Help us to be less concerned and worried about prayer and more and more focused on and committed to simply praying; give us Your gift of peace, the peace that every person desperately needs and yearns for,
the peace that is beyond all understanding, the peace necessary to live in modern culture which confronts us with ever and more difficult challenges every day.
Let this peace fill our hearts and overflow to the hearts of all peoples in every culture, everywhere right now.
Teach us to pray always, in different ways, at all times, for different reasons, and even for no reason other than just to be with You, to have peace and to live with and to love one another.
Thank You, Lord...Amen
